SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a warrantless search, conducted and controlled by the U.S. Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall undergo a mental health evaluation and/or participate in a mental health treatment program as directed by the supervising officer.

The defendant shall comply with forfeiture as outlined in the plea agreement.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $846,877.58 to Aultman Hospital, through the Clerk of the U.S. District Court. Restitution is due and payable immediately.

The defendant shall pay 25% of defendant's gross income per month, through the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If a restitution balance remains upon release from imprisonment, payment is to commence no later than 60 days following release from imprisonment to a term of supervised release (in equal monthly payments, or at least a minimum of 20% of defendant's gross monthly income) during the term of supervised release and thereafter as prescribed by law.

Notwithstanding establishment of a payment schedule, nothing shall prohibit the United States from executing or levying upon property of the defendant discovered before and after the date of this Judgment.
